

News release
21st October 2010

Aurora chosen as Supplier of the Year 2010 to AIEW

Aurora (UK) has been voted AIEW 2010 Supplier of the Year for 2010.

AIEW are one of the six main Electrical Wholesale buying groups in the UK and have the largest membership with over 100 individual members representing a purchasing power of over £200 million per annum.

Buying Groups represent independent wholesalers and seek to enhance terms and relationships with electrical manufacturers.

Each member's vote was based on a full range of criteria including service, product range and quality as well as price.

Aurora Executive Director, Kevin Bell, who received the award at the AIEW Buying Group's Annual Trade Show and Gala Dinner said "Everyone at Aurora has played a key part in our earning this prestigious award and I am very proud that the efforts of Aurora people have been recognised by our major customers."

-Ends-

Photocaption

Aurora's executive director, Kevin Bell receiving the award, Supplier of the Year 2010 from AIEW director, Elaine Lamb at the AIEW Buying Group's Annual Trade Show and Gala Dinner.

Issued by Julia Smith of Aura PR Tel: 01636 611 774 or email: julia@aurapr.co.uk

Notes to Editors:

Aurora – Passionate About Lighting.

1. Aurora Lighting is a dynamic, international manufacturing, distribution and marketing organisation.
2. Since 1999 the Aurora Group has provided innovative lighting solutions under the 'Aurora', 'A2', 'Luna', 'Sola', & 'Aura' brands directly through their group.

3. Companies in the UK, ROI, USA, UAE, Taiwan and China and on a worldwide basis through an expanding network of approved Distributors.
4. The Aurora group also continues to develop and manufacture lighting products on an OEM basis for customers in more than 35 countries.
5. Aurora employs over 550 people at their offices in the United Kingdom, Taiwan, USA and at their sales & manufacturing facilities in mainland China.